Tapping of coconut trees for sweet toddy.

* 803 Q.—SRI D. KRISHNAMURTHY GOUNDER: Will the Hon. the Minister for Religious Endowments and Transport be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government allow the tapping of coconut trees for sweet toddy, in the State; and

(b) if so, in which districts?

THE HON. SRI B. PARAMESWARAN :—" (a) & (b) The attention of the hon. Member is invited to the answer to question No. 1550 (starred) by T. S. Ardhanari, M.L.A., answered by Minister (Prohibition) on 24th March 1954."

SRI P. RANGASWAMI REDDIAR :—" During the last session of the Assembly there was a neera parlour in the Government Estate. May I know whether it will be opened during this session also? "

SRI K. VINAYAKAM :—" In view of the statement by the previous Minister for Prohibition that sweet toddy would be allowed to be tapped for sale for consumption by the public if the local Assembly Members gave an assurance that this right would not be misused by the toddy-tappers, what action has been taken by the Government so far after such an assurance was given to the Government by the Assembly Members representing the Chingleput District? "

THE HON. SRI B. PARAMESWARAN :—" That is being examined."

MR. SPEAKER :—" Questions over."
